

Dr. Bill Dischinger graduated from Tufts University in 1999. Upon his graduation, he joined his father Terry's practice in Lake Oswego, Oregon. Since joining the Dischinger Orthodontics Team, Dr. Bill has lectured extensively throughout the United States and internationally. Dr. Bill is an adjunct professor at the University of Pacific School of Dentistry Department of Orthodontics in San Francisco. Dr. Bill is one of 12 certified instructors of the Damon System Braces and teaches orthodontists on functional jaw orthopedics. He has been published in numerous articles in national orthodontic journals.

Dr. Bill married Kari Lynn, his high school sweetheart. Together they have four boys; Taylor, Turner, Trey and Tristan.